

A STORY BEHIND EVERY PLATE

For Chef Adrian Phua, cooking has always been about more than just flavour — it is about consistency, care, and the stories that shape each dish.

With over 25 years of culinary experience, his journey has taken him through the kitchens of renowned five-star hotels and across the region, where he represented Singapore through Asian food promotions. He began his career in banquets, where precision and consistency were key — crafting meals for large-scale occasions, including national events held at the Istana in Singapore.

Along the way, he has worked alongside internationally acclaimed chefs, served distinguished guests and delegates, and earned recognition in both local and regional culinary competitions. These experiences have shaped his approach today: thoughtful, grounded, and deeply rooted in delivering honest, well-executed flavours.

Now leading the kitchen at Dao by Dorsett AMTD Singapore, Chef Adrian brings together influences from his travels and years of experience, presenting a menu that is familiar yet refined — created to be enjoyed, shared, and remembered.
